COMBINED FEDERAL CAMPAIGN

Campaigns of the Week

NAVSEA

The Naval Sea Systems Command campaign has gained momentum by holding numerous engaging events. Recently, NAVSEA sold Halloween candy grams, held a pumpkin carving contest, and learned the choreography to Michael Jackson's "Thriller" (with a Thriller flash mob at a recent bake sale)! This is in addition to hot dog sales and several chili cook-offs.

pumpkin carving offered classes to choreography to "Thriller" (with a NSWC Carderock held a command-wide CFC tailgate party on October 26th which included the opportunity to vote on which executive would get pied in the face. NAVSEA is planning a Charity Fair and Silent Auction as a Mid Campaign event on 9 November. Each directorate is putting together gift baskets that attendees can bid on in support of the CFC. Later in November NAVSEA will have the PEO Carriers sponsored "NAVSEA's Got Talent" where members of the command will display their unique (and normally hidden) talents.

ONR

The Office of Naval Research campaign has gained enthusiastic support from the Chief of Naval Research who sent a command email expressing his heartfelt thanks for supporting the CFC campaign and helping to "Show Some Love".

Campaign keyworkers were able to generate momentum for the campaign by serving as greeters while handing out business cards with the "Show Some Love" logo and myPay instructions. ONR plans to continue this effort until December.

ONR is planning a chili cook-off on November 14th and a Charity Fair on November 16th. The visiting charities are the Prince William Humane Society, the Naval Submarine League and the Navy Marine Corps Coast Guard Residence Foundation.
